Metal-Fach Warranty Terms

Please read these Warranty Terms carefully, follow the instructions for the proper use of the Product (described in the User Manual), use the Product for its intended purpose, strictly observe the Warranty Terms and keep this document for future reference throughout the entire period of the Product's operation. Knowing and adhering to the principles set out in the Warranty Terms and User Manual of the Product is a requirement for the reliable and long-lasting Product operation.

Section 1. Scope of Warranty

1. Metal-Fach sp. z o.o., with its registered office in Sokółka, address: ul. Kresowa 62, 16-100 Sokółka, NIP 545-16-50-398, District Court in Białystok, 12th Commercial Division, National Court Register No. KRS 0000140580, Share capital PLN 530,000.00, grants the Warranty for the Product pursuant to the terms specified in these Warranty Terms.
2. The liability under the Warranty covers only defects in materials or workmanship caused by reasons inherent in the Product at the time of its release to the User. The liability under the Warranty, to the maximum extent permitted by the Law, applies only to defects emerging in the Product.
3. Under the Warranty, the User is granted the right to have the Product repaired free of charge, provided that the defect is discovered during the Warranty Period. The manner of the repair to be carried out shall be solely at the Warrantor's discretion. If the Warrantor finds that repair is impossible, the Warrantor reserves the right (at its sole discretion) to replace the defective part or the entire Product with one free from defects.

Section 2. Warranty Period

1. The Warranty Period for the Product is 24 months (the Warranty Period starts on the date of releasing the Product to the User, as specified in the Warranty Terms), except for components or parts of the Product which are especially subject to natural wear and tear before the Warranty Period expires, and which the Warranty is not granted for, and which are specified in paragraph 4.3 of these Warranty Terms.
2. The Warranty Terms shall not change should the User of the Product change, and the Warranty Period for the Product shall not resume from the beginning (the Warranty rights will be transferred to a new User for the period remaining until the expiry of the Warranty).

Section 3. Conditions for Claims under the Warranty

1. The User shall present these Warranty Terms signed by the User and submit the proof of purchase for the Product (e.g. by presenting a receipt, invoice, etc.). Should the Warranty Terms be lost, the Warrantor may, at the request of the User, and after carrying out (at the User's expense) a technical inspection of the Product, provide the User with substitute Warranty Terms and determine the remaining Warranty Period to which the User is entitled.
2. The User shall follow the instructions in the Warranty Terms and in the User Manual.
3. The User shall perform technical inspections of the Product in accordance with the guidelines specified in the User Manual, provided that the obligation to perform such inspections arises from the Product User Manual. Failure to perform any of the technical inspections within the time limits specified in the User Manual can result in the voiding of the Warranty. The technical inspections is a chargeable service. The technical Inspections are to be recorded in these Warranty Terms.
4. The repair and maintenance of the Product shall be performed by specialised businesses only. The User may have the distributor of the Product perform repair and maintenance activities. Repair and maintenance is a chargeable service. The repair and maintenance shall be recorded in these Warranty Terms.
5. The repairs under the Warranty shall only be carried out by the Warrantor, or entities designated by it. The repairs under Warranty shall be recorded in these Warranty Terms.
6. The warranty shall not exclude, limit, or suspend the rights of the Buyer resulting from the regulations on statutory warranties for defects in the sold product.
7. Regarding a User who is not a consumer within the meaning of the Act of 23 April 1964, the Civil Code, the Warrantor's liability for damages arising from this Warranty and/or in connection with its conclusion and performance, regardless of the legal title, and to the extent permitted by the Law, is limited to the maximum value of the defective Product, and the Warranty shall not cover incidental or consequential damages incurred as a result of the defect covered by the Warranty, including inconvenience, transport and phone call costs, accommodation costs, loss of income or damage to property.

Section 4. Exclusions

1. In particular, the Warranty shall not cover defects in the Product resulting from:
 - failure by the User to comply with the User Manual, or the Warrantor's and/or Product manufacturer's instructions, especially with regard to operation, maintenance and adjustment
 - the User's using consumables which fail to comply with the guidelines specified in the User Manual (e.g. oil purity must comply with condition 20/18/15 according to ISO Standard 4406-1996)

- the User's using cleaning or maintenance products which do not comply with the User Manual
 - the User's installing the Product in a manner not in accordance with the User Manual;
 - improper storing and transport of the Product by the User
 - the User's making arbitrary changes and/or alterations to the Product, which contributed to the occurrence of a defect
 - the User's exceeding the acceptable loads for the Product, as laid out in the User Manual
2. In respect of the Users who are not consumers within the meaning of the Act of 23 April 1964, Civil Code, the Warranty additionally shall not cover any defects in the Product resulting from, without limitation:
- Force Majeure events (e.g. fire, flood) or other random events for which the Warrantor is not responsible
 - incorrect Product selection, installation and operation
 - colour differences
 - mechanical damage or damage resulting from the improper use of the Product
 - negligence (e.g. failure to carry out repairs immediately after the defects are discovered)
 - losses resulting from accidents, or consequences thereof
 - external or atmospheric factors, such as asphalt, stones, gravel, hail, chemical deposits, salt, acids, etc.
 - the use of inappropriate and contaminated oils, greases, liquids, or other operating materials
 - the deterioration of external paint coatings, or hydraulic and pneumatic hoses, as a result of their normal wear
 - the operation of the Product by a person not authorised to do so
 - in the case of damaging or breaking seals or rating plates showing the product No., component No., etc.
3. The Warranty shall not cover tyres, parts and components exposed to abrasive wear and tear, friction couplings and brakes, operating parts of hitch devices, operating fluids, operating parts of floor conveyors (including conveyor chains, conveyor bars), sprocket wheels, electrical sockets, lamps, light bulbs and reflective devices, spring and suspension operating parts, stickers, sealings, V-belts, chains, chain drives and tensioning components, hydraulic and pneumatic hoses and their connections, bolt connections used to tighten the chains of the floor conveyor, or the rotors of the spreader adapter and its components.

Section 5. Complaints Procedure

1. Prior to making a complaint for a Product found not to be working correctly, the User must make sure that he/she has performed all actions in accordance with the User Manual.

2. You are recommended to lodge a complaint under the Warranty to the Warrantor immediately, e.g. within 7 days from the date the defect was noticed (the Buyer who is not a consumer within the meaning of the Act of 23 April 1964, Civil Code, shall lodge the complaint to the Warrantor within 7 days from the date it is noticed; otherwise the rights under the Warranty will be lost).
3. The complaints can be made in writing or by sending an e-mail to the address of the Distributor. The complaint shall include the identification of the Product reported (name, model, type, data enabling Product identification), a description of the defect, the date of defect's discovery, and the contact details of the User. The User may lodge a complaint using a template form available on the website www.metalfach.com.pl. ("Warranty Claim Form"). The User must present the fulfilled Warranty Terms and show the proof of the purchase of the Product. To further the complaint processing, you are recommended to attach to the complaint photo evidence of the reported defect, and of the entire Product.
4. You are advised not to use the defective Product.
5. The performance of the obligations under the Warranty shall take place within 14 working days of the date of the delivery of the Product by the User to the Warrantor. The Users are recommended to prepare the Product for the complaints procedure, e.g. to clean the Product (in the case of Users who are not consumers within the meaning of the Act of 23 April 1964, Civil Code, the Warrantor can have the Product washed at the Users' cost). The product delivered to the Warrantor must be complete. The defective Products, or parts thereof, which have been replaced, become the property of the Warrantor.
6. Only the Product Distributors and Service Centres designated by the Warrantor shall be authorised to perform the Warranty service.
7. The Warranty Period for the Product shall be extended by the time during which the User could not use it due to the defect in the Product.
8. If the Product is not collected by the User after the end of the complaints procedure within the agreed time limit, the Warrantor shall call the User to collect the Product within 7 days from the date of receiving the request. After the expiry of such a period in which the User fails to collect the Product, the Warrantor shall be entitled to charge a fee for the non-contractual storage of the Product. The storage shall be at the cost and risk of the User.

User Representations:

1. I hereby declare that the Product was released to me in accordance with the contract, being new, complete, free from defects, and in good technical order.
